Words and expressions used but not defined in this Policy, but defined in the SEBI Act 1992, Companies Act, 2013, the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956, the Depositories Act, 1996 and/or the rules and regulations made thereunder shall have the same meaning as respectively assigned to them in such Acts or rules or regulations or any statutory modification or re-enactment or clarification, thereto, as the case may be.

3. BROAD LAYOUT

The Regulations classify disclosure of events, into following categories:

- 1) Events which are deemed to be material events and must be disclosed without application of the “materiality criteria”. These events are specified by SEBI in para A of part A of Schedule III of the Regulations.

- 2) Events which need to be disclosed based on the application of the “materiality criteria”. These events are specified by SEBI in para B of part A of Schedule III of the Regulations.
- 3) Other events as specified by SEBI in para C and D of part A of Schedule III of the Regulations.

Regulation 30(4)(ii) of the Regulations requires that the Company shall have a “Policy for Determination of Materiality” based on the criteria mentioned in the Regulations, duly approved by the Board of Directors.

In compliance with the above, this Policy for Determination of Materiality of Events (hereinafter referred to as “Policy” or “this Policy”) is framed and approved by the Board of Directors of Dalmia Bharat Sugar and Industries Limited (“Company”).

4. AUTHORITY

The Board has constituted a Disclosure Committee (hereinafter referred to as “the Committee”), comprising of the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and the Company Secretary as Members. Further, the Legal Head shall be a permanent invitee of the Committee.

The Committee shall have the power to invite Unit Head(s) and/or any other officer of the Company to aid the Committee to ascertain the materiality of any event or information.

5. DECISION MAKING OF THE DISCLOSURE COMMITTEE

The Disclosure Committee members and the permanent invitee(s) may meet physically or may interact through e-mails or virtual meetings or any other digital communication as the member of the Committee may deem fit.

6. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Roles and Responsibilities of the Committee shall include the following:

1. To ensure compliance with the disclosure requirements under Regulation 30 of the Regulations and such other Circulars as may be specified by SEBI in this regard from time to time;
2. To take a view on the materiality of an event or on the price sensitivity of an event that qualifies for disclosure under Regulation 30 of the Regulations;

3. To determine the appropriate time at which the disclosures are to be made to the stock exchanges which shall be in adherence to the requirements of Regulation 30 of the Regulations;
4. To review and finalize the details to be disclosed. The contents of the disclosure shall be in line with the Regulations and SEBI Circulars issued in this regard, and as may be amended from time to time.
5. From the effective date, as notified by SEBI, to confirm, deny or clarify any rumour in the Mainstream Media, which is giving details of some impending material event/information, not yet disclosed by the Company in accordance with the requirements of Regulation 30 of the Regulations.
6. To arrange for training(s), awareness session(s) and to provide necessary assistance to Relevant Employees in identifying any potential material event or information and reporting the same to the Committee;
7. To consider such other events that may require disclosure to be made to the stock exchanges which are not explicitly specified by SEBI in part A of Schedule III of the Regulations and determine the materiality, appropriate time and contents of disclosure for such matter;
8. To disclose material developments (with relevant explanations), in respect of disclosures already made under this Policy, on a regular basis till the time such event is resolved / closed / terminated.
9. To suggest amendment(s) to the Policy as may be required from time to time in compliance with law and/or as the circumstances may demand.

7. CRITERIA FOR DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY OF EVENTS/ INFORMATION:

In terms of the Regulations, materiality has to be determined on a case to case basis depending on the specific facts and circumstances relating to the event/ information. A particular event/information would be considered as material in nature if it satisfies either of the criteria proposed below:

QUALITATIVE CRITERIA:

- (a) The omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- (b) The omission of an event or information is likely to result in Significant Market Reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or

QUANTITATIVE CRITERIA:

- (c) the omission of an event or information, whose value or the Expected Impact in terms of value, exceeds the least of the following:
- (i) 2% of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;
 - (ii) 2% of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - (iii) 5% of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;

However, where the last financial statements are not audited at the time of determining materiality of an event, the latest audited financial statements may be considered for the said purpose.

The Committee shall determine the Expected Impact of an Event/ Information, at the time of its occurrence, in terms of value as specified above.

For such events/information, as mentioned in para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations, SEBI has prescribed indicative guidelines along with quantitative criteria (para 7(c) above) for determining materiality of an event or information, and which can be considered by the Disclosure Committee for the purpose of disclosure of such events/information to the Stock Exchanges, without diluting the same in any manner. The Committee may, from time to time, modify or amend existing indicative guidelines or specify new guidelines to ascertain materiality of events/ information in this regard, without diluting the requirement of the Regulations.

8. TIMELINE FOR DISCLOSURE

The events/information shall be first disclosed to the Stock Exchanges as soon as reasonably possible but and in any case not later than the following:

- i) thirty minutes from the closure of the meeting of the Board of Directors in which the decision pertaining to the event or information has been taken;
