WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY & VIGIL MECHANISM

1. Preface

- (a) Dalmia Bharat Sugar and Industries Limited (“Company”) believes in the conduct of its affairs in a fair and transparent manner by adopting the highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behaviour. The Company is committed to developing a culture where it is safe for all Stakeholders including Employees and Directors to raise concerns about any poor, illegal, unethical or unacceptable practice and any event of misconduct.
- (b) Section 177 (9) of the Companies Act, 2013 (“Act”) read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014, mandate that the following classes of companies must constitute a vigil mechanism –
- (i) Every listed company;
  - (ii) Every other company which accepts deposits from the public;
  - (iii) Every company which has borrowed money from banks and public financial institutions in excess of INR 50,00,00,000 (Indian rupees fifty crores).

In addition to the above, Regulation 22 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“SEBI Listing Regulations”) mandatorily requires all listed companies to establish a vigil mechanism for directors, employees and other persons to report genuine concerns while safeguarding them against any consequent victimization. Regulation 4(2)(d)(iv) of the SEBI Listing Regulations also places an obligation on listed companies to devise a whistle blower policy that enables stakeholders to freely communicate their concerns about any unethical or illegal practices.

- (c) Accordingly, this whistle blower policy and vigil mechanism (“Policy”) has been formulated with a view to provide a mechanism for directors, employees and other stakeholders of the Company to approach the Head HR/ Chairperson of the Audit Committee of the Company for appropriate cases.

2. Definitions

The definitions of some of the key terms used in this Policy are given below.

- (a) “Stakeholders” means vendors, suppliers, shareholders, debenture holders and others with whom the Company has any financial or commercial dealings.

- (d) “Company” means Dalmia Bharat Sugar and Industries Limited.
- (e) “Director” means a director of the Company.
- (f) “Employee” means every employee of the Company (whether working in India or abroad),
- (g) “HR Head” refers to Head of Human Resource Department of Dalmia Bharat Sugar and Industries Limited.
- (h) “Investigators” mean Investigation Committee or the persons authorised or appointed by the Head HR/Chairperson of the Audit Committee to conduct investigations under this Policy.
- (i) “Protected Disclosure” means any communication made in good faith under this Policy that discloses or demonstrates information that may evidence unethical or improper activity in relation to the Company.
- (j) “Whistle Blower” means a Stakeholder, Employee or Director making a Protected Disclosure in accordance with this Policy.
- (k) “Ethics Officer” means internal control point for all Protected Disclosure.

3. Scope of the Policy

- 3.1 The Whistle Blower’s role is to report with reliable information relating to actual or potential violations of the Code or insider trading regulations. The Whistle Blower is neither required nor expected to act as an Investigator or finder of facts, nor would he/she determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted in a given case.

3.2 Whistle Blowers shall neither act on their own in conducting any investigative activities, nor have a right to participate in any investigative activities other than as requested by the Company.

3.3 Protected Disclosures will be appropriately dealt with by the Ethics Officer.

4. Eligibility and Disqualifications

4.1 All Whistle Blowers are eligible to make Protected Disclosures under this Policy.

4.2 While it will be ensured that genuine Whistle Blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment as herein set out, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action.

4.3 Protection under this Policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a Whistle Blower knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention.

4.4 Whistle Blowers, who make three or more Protected Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala fide, frivolous, baseless, malicious, or reported otherwise than in good faith, will be disqualified from reporting further Protected Disclosures under this Policy. In respect of such Whistle Blowers, Chairman of the Audit Committee would reserve its right to take appropriate disciplinary action.

5. Procedure for filing a complaint

5.1 The All Protected Disclosures concerning (a) financial / accounting matters; (b) instance related to insider trading or leakage of unpublished price sensitive information (“UPSI”); and (c) the Head HR and Employees at the levels of General Manager and above (d) In respect of all other Protected Disclosures, including those concerning other Employees, should be addressed to the “Ethics Officer” of the company for investigation and submitted in a sealed envelope marked as “Confidential”.

5.2 All Protected Disclosures related to (a) financial / accounting matters; (b) instance related to insider trading or leakage of unpublished price sensitive information (“UPSI”); and (c) the Head HR and Employees at the levels of General Manager and above, should be addressed to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee of the Company for investigation and submitted in a sealed envelope marked as “Confidential” by the Ethics Officer.

6. Investigation of Complaints

All Protected Disclosures reported under this Policy shall be reviewed by the Head HR/ Chairperson of the Audit Committee of the Company and handed over to Investigation Committee or persons or agencies authorised by them to act as an investigator for investigation if there is a prima facie case. The Investigators, so authorised shall maintain confidentiality and follow principles of natural justice in conduct of the investigations. Upon conclusion of the investigation and based on the review of relevant findings, HR Head/Chairperson of Audit Committee shall submit their result of investigation to the Ethics Office with suggested action.

7. Protection of Whistle Blowers

- 7.1 No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of him / her having made a Protected Disclosure under this Policy. The Company condemns any kind of discrimination, harassment, victimization or any other unfair employment practice being adopted against Whistle Blowers. Complete protection will, therefore, be given to Whistle Blowers against any unfair practice like retaliation, threat or intimidation of termination/suspension of service, disciplinary action, transfer, demotion, refusal of promotion, or the like including any direct or indirect use of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue to perform his / her duties / functions including making further Protected Disclosures.
- 7.2 A Whistle Blower may directly report any violation of the above clause to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee, who shall investigate into the same and recommend suitable action to the Investigators and management.
- 7.3 The identity of the Whistle Blower shall be kept confidential to the extent possible and permitted under law. Whistle Blowers are cautioned that their identity may become known for reasons outside the control of the Head HR/ Chairperson of the Audit Committee (e.g. during investigations carried out by Investigators).
- 7.4 Any other Employee or Director assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

9. Retention of documents

All documentation in relation to the Protected Disclosures including the investigation documents shall be considered as confidential and retained by the Head HR for a minimum period of 5 (five) years.

10. Information about the policy

This policy shall be placed on the website of the Company and details of the same shall also be part of the Corporate Governance Report.
